Why Offer Financing From Intuit Credit Karma

1 Easy to Introduce

When having initial discussions on project scope, mention to your clients you can help facilitate fast, simple financing through a trusted household name.

2 Built Into Your Quote

You can add financing info directly into your Houzz Pro Estimates, follow-ups, and conversations. Repetition helps ensure your clients know this option is always available.

3 Zero Cost to You

There's no setup fee or recurring cost to your business—just a simple way to help more homeowners move forward with their dream projects.

4 Support Every Step of the Way

Get familiar with how the financing works so you can confidently answer your client's questions. You can read more about how it works here.
